RE: Federal contract provisions for procurements utilizing federal grant funding

PROCUREMENT STANDARDS OF THE UNIFORM ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS, COST PRINCIPLES, AND AUDIT REQUIREMENTS FOR FEDERAL AWARDS

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has adopted changes to the procurement standards of the Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, 2 C.F.R. § 200 (Uniform Guidance)¹. The rules require procurement contracts, and the procuring entities, to comply with federal government requirements for procurements using federal funds or funds under a federal grant or contract. The United States Department of Education (USDE) adopted the OMB rules thereafter, known as the Education Department General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR)². The procurement standards of other federal agencies, such as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Public Assistance funds the Federal Transit Administration, or the Federal Aviation Administration, may also apply depending on the source of the federal funds.

Certain Sourcewell contracts may not include the required terms and conditions prescribed by the Uniform Guidance or other agency rule. In those instances, Sourcewell provides suppliers the opportunity to certify their intent to comply with the requirements by executing a Federal Contract Provisions Certification form (attached). The completed certification form is made part of the permanent procurement file and is available as part of the formal contract documentation. Should a supplier not execute the certification form, Sourcewell cooperative purchasing contract users may have limited options to access the contract due to the funding source.

For certain contracts, the Federal Contract Provisions Certification form may not be required as the terms and conditions are incorporated in the solicitation, request for proposal documents, or contract. Both the certification form or contract documentation include the same terms and conditions, and both require the vendor to demonstrate its willingness and ability to comply with the federal requirements.

This includes, but is not limited to, the procurement standards of the Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, 2 C.F.R. § 200 (Uniform Guidance), the United States Department of Education (USDE) General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR), or procurement standards of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Public Assistance funds, among other federal agencies rules.

All references to “federal” should be interpreted to mean the United States federal government and agencies thereof. The numbering and identification contained herein is for reference purposes and does not identify any actual Federal designation or location of the rule. Rules are located in 2 C.F.R. § 200. The following only applies when a procurement has been made with federal funds or funds under a federal grant or contract.

The Supplier agrees to comply with the following federal laws and regulations, as applicable.
